WALLUPED IN DOUBLE HEADER

C. A. C.'s Lose Two at Westerly—Connecticut and New England League Seasons Over—Detroit Makes a Gain

Rhode Island-Connecticut League Standing.

Team	W.	L.	P.C.
Westerly	17	7	.708
Woonsocket	15	9	.625
Wallingford	13	11	.542
Woonsocket	11	13	.458
Westerly	9	15	.375
Woonsocket	7	17	.292

The C. A. C. team of this city lost both games of a double header in Westerly Saturday afternoon, making a good fight of it in the first, and losing only by a single run, 5 to 4, but they were never in the hunt for the second game, which was taken in runaway fashion by Westerly, 15 to 2. A. J. C. seemed to have Westerly on the run, but the Rhode Islanders checked the spurt just in time to save the game for themselves.

In the second game, the Westerly batters found the Norwich pitchers to their liking, first clouting Simcox out of the box, and keeping up the scoring when Kane and Murre went in to stem the tide. The uneven contest was stopped in the sixth, with Westerly so far ahead that there was no hope of the C. A. C. ever catching up. The scores:

First game:

Team	W.	L.	P.C.
Westerly	5	4	.562
Woonsocket	4	5	.438

Second game:

Team	W.	L.	P.C.
Westerly	15	2	.882
Woonsocket	2	15	.118

DAYVILLE WON CLOSE GAME.
Arlines of Hanover Defeated 3 to 2.

A tight game was played Saturday between the Arline team of Hanover and Dayville, the score being 3 to 2 in favor of the Dayville nine until the ninth when Arline scored 1 run, making it 3 to 2. The scores:

Dayville:

Player	W.	L.	P.C.
Dayville	3	2	.600
Arlines	2	3	.400

Hilt Marries O'Rourke's Daughter.
Frank Hilt, shortstop on the Bridgeport state league team, and Miss Ida O'Rourke, the daughter of Manager O'Rourke, were married Friday evening. Frank Hilt joined the Orators two years ago. He has the earmarks of a great player, batting this season at the .300 class. He was recommended to Manager O'Rourke by Connie Mack, manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, and it is rumored that he will be given a trial at short this season with the big league team.

Rumors at Northampton.
Rumors of sale of the Northampton baseball franchise, before the opening of another season have been again revived in Northampton. It is said that G. P. O'Donnell, in the interest of Northampton men who desire the control of the team has offered Bowler & Edwards $2,500, and that they are holding out for $3,000. The plan is said to be to put Tom Conners of Hartford in charge of the team.

Murray Gets a Six Foot Twirl.
Pitcher Falkenberg of Cleveland will not stand alone in a class of tall statists when placed alongside Pitcher Bob Trout, whom Billy Murray has just secured for the Phillies next year, who is now a member of the McDonalds, Pa. team, stands six feet four inches in his stockings, and is stout as a pig.

HARTFORD STATE CHAMPIONS.

Clark's Ball Team Wins the Bunting-Bridgport Tailenders.

Saturday's games closed the season for the Connecticut baseball league. Hartford, winning its first championship in years, Hoyt was a poor second and New Britain third. For the last day Hartford had Bridgport, the cellar chasers, in front of them, easily disposing of them. The last games and the standing follow:

Connecticut League Standing.

Team	W.	L.	P.C.
Hartford	17	7	.708
New Britain	15	9	.625
Wallingford	13	11	.542
Woonsocket	11	13	.458
Westerly	9	15	.375
Woonsocket	7	17	.292

Arrangements have been made to have a grand street parade tonight in Hartford in honor of the winning of the pennant. The procession will be headed by the Foot Guard band. The players will follow the band in automobiles and on foot. The parade will start at 7 o'clock and will end at the City Hall. The parade will be a grand one and will be a great success.

WORCESTER CHAMPIONS.

Jesse Burkett's Men Win Fourth Consecutive Pennant.

For the fourth consecutive year the Worcester team won the pennant in the New England league, defeating Hartford Saturday in the last game of the season, 3 to 2. A month ago Worcester was in the second division, where it had been most of the season. Within the last two months, however, Manager Jesse Burkett made a winning combination out of the team by releasing a few of its veterans and putting in youngsters in their places. The club backed remarkably and finished with a percentage of .621, the following being the standing:

New England League Standing.

Team	W.	L.	P.C.
Worcester	17	7	.708

YALE GOLFER

IS NATIONAL CHAMPION

Young Gardner Wins Honors from Egan the Veteran.

Robert E. Gardner of Hinsdale, a clean-limbed, red-checked lad of 19 years, on Saturday won the amateur golf championship of the United States from H. Chandler Egan of Exmouth, N. H., the winner of national fours, four and two to play. He is the youngest man that ever won the national championship.

Gardner had an advantage of two holes over Egan at the end of the morning round, and although Egan caught him at the third hole of the afternoon play and had a lead of one hole at the seventh, the gritty youngster on completely outplayed the man from Exmouth.

It was Harvard against Yale, Gardner, the winner being a sophomore at the New Haven institution. A tremendous gallery followed the match and when the end came at the 34th hole when Gardner holed out the short putt that made him the amateur golf champion, a crowd of the Yale man's friends lifted him to their shoulders, shouting with joy.

NOTES OF SPORT.

RAINIER, THE COLLEGE PITCHER, has made such a phenomenal record this season that he is regarded as a likely man for the professional class.

The appointment of William Dineen of the pitching staff of the St. Louis American league club as an umpire of that organization was officially announced Saturday.

Arthur Merritt, Yale's strongest pitcher, the past season, says that he will not return to the university for another year. He says that he is going into business in Arizona.

"Doc" Reiling, the former Connecticut leaguer, who was sold by the York-Tri-State club to Manager Canavan of the Washington American league team, may return to the York club.

Manager Fred Clark of the Pittsburgh team has received an offer to take a team of ball players to the Orient at the close of the baseball season—providing Pittsburgh wins the pennant.

America gained a signal victory over Great Britain Saturday at Philadelphia in the first two matches for the Davis international tennis tournament.

William A. Larned and William J. Clifton defeated respectively C. P. Dixon and J. C. Parke, without the loss of a set. Larned outclassed Dixon most of the time, but Parke made a better fight against Clifton, forcing the third set to close games.

TO HONOR LOWELL.
Yale to Send Four Delegates to His Inauguration.

At the exercises attendant on the inauguration of Prof. Lawrence Lowell as the new president of Harvard university on October 5, 6 and 7, Yale university will be officially represented by four delegates.

President Hadley will bear to President Lowell the greeting and welcome of Yale university. In addition to the four delegates, Harvard will be represented by the arrangements made by the authorities at Harvard, who are in charge of the celebration.

NEW HAVEN MASONS
To Have Higher Wages Under New Agreement.

Says the New Haven Journal-Courier.
